

Poster (alphabetical order by the main author) at the 6th European Colloquium Ethnopharmacology & 20. Fachkonferenz „Ethnomedizin“

Programme copy / Programmheft pp. 35-36 = Opening of Poster session 8 nov 2007 16:30

- (1) Rocio Alarcon (San Sebastian, Pays basque) et al.: Medicinal and edible plants as elements of the biodiversity of the Basque Country, Spain.
- (2) Al-Fatimi, M. & U. Lindequist (Greifswald): Ethnopharmacological studies of antibacterial remedies in Yemen.
- (3) Al-Fatimi, M., Jansen, R., Jülich, W.-D. and U. Lindequist (Greifswald): Phytochemical and Biological Investigations of the Yemeni Mushroom Podaxis pistillaris.
- (4) Cabalion Pierre et Hnawia Edouard: Pacific plants with ethnobotanical and ethnopharmacological interest: example of plants used for caulking.
- (5) Champy P. (Paris-Sud) et al.: Atypical parkinsonism induced by Annonaceae: Phytochemical and neurotoxicological data.
- (6) Laurence Coiffard (Nantes) et al.: Intérêt des substances naturelles dans la photoprotection topique.
- (7) Odile Désiré (Antsiranana et Lille) et al.: Développement de l'ethnobotanique dans le nord de Madagascar. Contribution à l'étude ethnopharmacologique de Tetracera madagascariensis WILLD. Ex SCHLECHT (Dilleniaceae) et de Mascarenhasia arborescens D.C. (Apocynaceae).
- (8) Barbara Frei Haller (Neuchâtel) & Liselotte Kuntner (Ch-Küttigen): Traditional Diet during Lactation – Underestimated Aspect in Health Care Systems for Mother and Child – An Ethnobotanical Evaluation.
- (9) Kata Frendl (Pécs), Nóra Papp, Tamás Grynaeus: Veterinary based on experience and belief in Gyimes and Úz Valley of Csángó's (Transylvania, Rumania).
- (10) Pavlos Georgiadis (Hohenheim): 'Medicinal Flora and Associated Indigenous Knowledge: A Method for Sustainable Development in the Garhwal Himalaya, Uttarakhand, India.'
- (11) Ghrabi Gammar Zeineb & et Ben Haj Jilani Imtinène (Tunis): Inventaire et valorisation de la biodiversité médicinale de la flore du sud – ouest du Kef (Tunisie).
- (12) Peter Giovannini & Michael Heinrich (London): xki-yoma ' and xki-tienda: Herbal Medicine and Shop's Medicine among Mazatecs.
- (13) Daniela Hanganu, Angela Mărculescu (Brasov): Chenopodium bonus henricus L.(Chenopodiaceae) - a traditional plant used in Romania.
- (14) Edouard Hnawia (Nouméa) et al.: Plantes réputées médicinales des Iles Loyauté (N.-Calédonie).
- (15) see after (31)

- (16) Andreas Lardos (Zürich) & Michael Heinrich (London): An application of the regression analysis on the plants of the Iatrosophikon, a monastic medicinal scripture from Cyprus.
- (17) Guy Lesoeurs (Arles): Tradition and function of “dreamcatchers” in North American Indians / Tradition et fonction de l’attrape-rêve chez les Amérindiens du Nord.
- (18) Guy Lesoeurs (Arles): Tributes to Lady Diana. Pilgrims’ flowers and their symbolism at Pont de l’Alma, Paris. About “commemorative ethnobotany”, a tentative.
- (19) Guy Lesoeurs (Arles): Prevention and body purification by plants and cobaye, cavia porcellus. Equatorian shamans in action. Experiencing “limpia con plantas” and “limpia con cuy”.
- (20) Manea Șt., Tamaș V., Raiciu D., Mărculescu A., Ionescu D.(Brasov): The Romanian sea-buckthorns from traditional practices to contemporary science.
- (21) Mărculescu Angela, Stanciu Mirela, Hanganu Daniela, Olteanu Gheorghe, Mărculescu Laura, Popa Emil (Brasov): Les jardins des plantes médicinales et aromatiques - de la tradition à l’agrotourisme modern.
- (22) Aline Mercan (Aix-Marseille III) & Jean-Pierre Nicolas (Lille): Anthropologie multisite de deux phytomedicaments himalayens: Rhodiola crenulata ET Cordyceps sinensis.
- (23) Quentin Meunier (Uganda) & Amélie Morin: Vegetative propagation of medicinal trees and shrubs in Western Uganda, East Africa. Six easy, efficient and affordable propagation techniques for rural communities.
- (24) Ramzi A.A. Mothana (Greifswald / Sana’a) et al.: Study of the anticancer potential of Yemeni plants used in folk medicine.
- (25) Nóra Papp (Pecs), Kata Frenzl, Tamás Grynæus: Ethnobotanical data of some gardens in Csinód (Transylvania).
- (26) Andriana Patsoura and Michael Heinrich (London): Multicomponent traditional therapeutics versus chemically defined drugs: The case of the Pomak community in Greece.
- (27) Isabelle Ratsimiala Ramonta (Antananarivo) : L’ethnopharmacologie et l’ethnobotanique : Perspectives à Madagascar.
- (28) Céline Rivière (Lille) et al.: Compounds isolated from two plants endemic to Madagascar pharmacological activities and models for design and synthesis of matrix metalloproteinases inhibitors.
- (29) Camelia Sand, Horia C. Barbu, Dana Bobit, M. R. Pop (Sibiu): Selection and in vitro multiplication of Arnica Montana, for cultivation on large areas.
- (30) Sanz-Biset Jaume, Cañigüeral S.(Barcelona): The tradition of taking plant remedies with secluded and saltless partial fasting in the Chazuta valley (Peruvian Amazon).
- (31) Anna Trojanowska (Warszawa): Fungi in Use in the Folk Medical Care in Poland in the 19th Century.
- (32) Caroline S. Weckerle (Zuerich): Ethnobotany and Ethnomedicine – A new continuing education programme at the University of Zurich.
- (15) Franz K. Huber and Caroline S. Weckerle (Zuerich): Wild plant use in the Hengduan Mountains of Southwest China - Ongoing projects.
- (33) Zsanett Hajdu (Szeged): Ethnobotanical evaluation of medicinal plants used in the community Porvenir, Santa Cruz Department, Bolivia.